Petitioners,

v.

Mark Fellheimer, in his official capacity as Chief Judge of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit; Shawn Garth, in her official capacity as Court Clerk; Donald R. Everhart, Jr., in his official capacity as Clerk of the Circuit Court, Respondents.

MOTION FOR CLARIFICATION OF SEPTEMBER 29, 2026 ORDER
AND RENEWED REQUEST FOR CONSIDERATION OF RULE 383 SUPERVISORY RELIEF
AND RULE 381 ORIGINAL MANDAMUS RELIEF

Petitioners respectfully submit this limited motion concerning the Court's September 29, 2026 notice in Supreme Court No. 133449. Petitioners do not resubmit the prior 199-page record or its exhibits. Those materials have already been filed and are incorporated only by reference to the existing record.

I. SEPTEMBER 29, 2026 NOTICE

The September 29, 2026 Official Notice states that Petitioners' motion to reconsider the prior denial of a supervisory order under Supreme Court Rule 383 and the motion for leave to file a verified complaint for an original writ of mandamus under Supreme Court Rule 381 were "Denied." The notice further states, "Order entered by the Court," and that "Holder White, J., took no part."

Petitioners recognize that the word "Denied" constitutes a disposition of the motions. Petitioners therefore do not represent that no ruling occurred. The concern presented here is narrower: the notice does not state whether the denial was procedural or merits-based, does not identify any particular defect in the Rule 381 or Rule 383 requests, does not state what portion of the previously filed record controlled the disposition, and does not provide reasoning addressing the specific documentary matters identified in the motion to reconsider.

The notice also records that one Justice took no part. Petitioners respectfully note that the notice does not identify the participation or vote of the remaining members of the Court, and no separate written opinion or reasoned order accompanied the notice.

A. September 28, 2026 Rehearing Docket and September 29 Case-Specific Notice

Petitioners further note that the Supreme Court's September 28, 2026 rehearing docket identified the rehearing matters disposed of on that date, but Supreme Court No. 133449 was not among the cases listed. The following day, September 29, 2026, the Clerk issued the case-specific notice in No. 133449 stating that Petitioners' motion to reconsider and request for leave under Rules 383 and 381 were denied.

Petitioners do not contend that the absence of No. 133449 from the September 28 rehearing docket, standing alone, invalidates the September 29 disposition. Petitioners identify the sequence because the present matter had previously been directed away from Rule 367 rehearing procedure and into a motion-to-reconsider procedure, and because the September 29 notice provides no explanation of the procedural basis, deliberative posture, or grounds for the disposition. Clarification would permit Petitioners to understand the procedural status of the matter without duplicating the extensive record already filed.

B. PUBLIC DOCKET AND DAILY-ANNOUNCEMENT SEQUENCE

Petitioners respectfully identify an additional public-record sequence relevant to the limited clarification requested. The Supreme Court of Illinois publicly identified Monday, September 28, 2026 as an anticipated decision date for rehearings, and the Court's Orders and Announcements page published a September 28, 2026 Rehearing Docket. Petitioners have not located Supreme Court No. 133449 on that published rehearing list.

The Court's September 29, 2026 Daily Announcement is particularly relevant. That nine-page public announcement expressly lists numerous dispositions involving original mandamus, supervisory-order, habeas-corpus, reconsideration, and related extraordinary-relief matters. The announcement expressly records both denials and allowed supervisory matters. Petitioners have not located Supreme Court No. 133449, Hotep El v. Fellheimer, in that September 29 Daily Announcement.

Nevertheless, Petitioners received a separate case-specific Official Notice dated September 29, 2026 in Supreme Court No. 133449 stating that the motion to reconsider the denial of Rule 383 supervisory relief and the motion for leave to file a verified Rule 381 original mandamus complaint were "Denied," that an "Order [was] entered by the Court," and that "Holder White, J., took no part." Petitioners therefore do not contend that the absence of No. 133449 from the public announcement, standing alone, establishes that no disposition occurred or that the disposition is invalid.

Rather, Petitioners request clarification of the relationship between the September 29 case-specific notice and the Court's September 29 public Daily Announcement, particularly because the public announcement identifies other Rule 381-type mandamus and Rule 383-type supervisory matters and their dispositions. Petitioners seek a record-based explanation of the procedural status of No. 133449 and whether its disposition was entered on a separate miscellaneous, administrative, or other docket not reflected in the public Daily Announcement reviewed by Petitioners.

Petitioners make no assertion in this motion concerning the reason for the case's absence from the public lists. The requested clarification is limited to what the official Court records establish.

II. LIMITED CLARIFICATION REQUESTED

Petitioners respectfully request clarification, to the extent the Court deems appropriate, of the following limited matters:

- whether the September 29 denial was based upon a procedural deficiency, a jurisdictional determination, or consideration of the merits of the Rule 381 and Rule 383 requests;
- whether the Court considered the previously filed documentary record identified in the motion to reconsider, including the filing-history evidence, November 5, 2025 sanctions order, asserted filing restrictions, and adequacy-of-ordinary-remedies issue;
- whether denial of leave under Rule 381 reflects a determination that the proposed verified complaint failed to satisfy a particular threshold requirement, and, if so, what requirement the Court found unsatisfied; and
- whether any further filing directed to a newly arising circumstance or continuing alleged obstruction would be procedurally permitted, as distinguished from repetition of the matters already disposed of.

III. RENEWED REQUEST WITHOUT DUPLICATION OF EXHIBITS

Petitioners do not ask the Clerk to duplicate, refile, or reproduce the exhibits previously submitted. Petitioners ask the Court to consider this motion together with the record already lodged in Supreme Court No. 133449.

To the extent procedurally permissible, Petitioners renew their request that the Court consider whether the circumstances already documented warrant supervisory relief under Rule 383 or leave to proceed with the original mandamus complaint under Rule 381. This renewed request is made for preservation and clarification of the record and is not intended to conceal or disregard the Court's September 29 disposition.

IV. IDENTITY, REPRESENTATIVE CAPACITY, CAPTION, AND SANCTION CLARIFICATION

Petitioners further request that the September 29 disposition be clarified in light of a distinct identity-and-capacity issue reflected in the record. Petitioners' position is not that typography or capitalization alone determines legal identity. The narrower question is which person, entity, trade name, trust, estate, or representative capacity was actually before the Circuit Court and against whom personal jurisdiction, sanctions, and other coercive measures were exercised.

The record identified by Petitioners includes the 2021 Nevada District Court name-change order and related materials reflecting the name used by prince ra hotep el; Illinois docket and caption materials reflecting the disputed designation "PRINCE HOTEL EL"; the filing requesting correction of that caption; the November 5, 2025 sanctions materials; assignment records; and administrative-closure and later hearing/docket records.

Petitioners contend that prince ra hotep el appeared in the underlying matter as Executor/Beneficiary and in a representative capacity associated with trust and estate interests. Petitioners therefore request clarification whether the record contains a recognized procedure by which he was joined, substituted, or otherwise made an individual substantive party, together with the notice and service supporting any such procedure.

Petitioners also request clarification concerning the Circuit Court caption alleged to have used "PRINCE HOTEL EL." Petitioners contend that this designation did more than alter capitalization because it omitted "ra" and rendered "Hotep El" as "HOTEL EL." The requested clarification concerns the docket event or order that created that caption, the disposition of the request to correct it, and the caption used in subsequent proceedings and sanctions.

The identity issue also bears directly upon the November 5, 2025 sanction record. Petitioners request that the official order, transcript, recording, certified minute entry, or other controlling record identify the exact person or designation sanctioned, the capacity attributed to that person, the authority invoked, and the notice and opportunity to respond. Petitioners further request clarification whether the $5,000 sanction and any threatened coercive action were directed to prince ra hotep el individually, to him in a representative capacity, to an asserted trade name, to a trust or estate, or to another designation.

Finally, Petitioners dispute the characterization of prince ra hotep el as a "sovereign citizen" and request identification of the statement, pleading, testimony, evidence, or legal argument in the record upon which that characterization was based, including whether the characterization affected personal-jurisdiction findings, sanctions, threatened coercive action, filing treatment, or the failure to correct the caption.

Petitioners ask that these matters be determined from the official docket, accepted and rejected filings, assignment records, orders, notices, transcripts, recordings, electronic filing history, and authenticated identity/name documents already lodged or referenced in Supreme Court No. 133449. Petitioners do not seek to duplicate the previously submitted record.

V. ASSIGNMENT AND PROCEDURAL AUTHORITY

Petitioners further request clarification from the official record concerning the procedural mechanism through which the registered foreign judgment was placed before the particular judicial officer for reopening, vacatur, stay, sanctions, or other judicial action; the date and authority of any judicial assignment; the matter assigned; notice of assignment; and the procedural basis for proceedings occurring after any administrative closure. Petitioners do not contend that registration categorically prevents all judicial involvement. The requested determination is whether the particular intervention reflected in this record was properly invoked, assigned, noticed, and directed toward the correct parties and capacities.

VI. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioners respectfully request that the Court: (1) clarify the September 29, 2026 disposition to the extent the Court deems appropriate; (2) identify whether the denial rested upon a procedural, jurisdictional, or merits-based ground if the Court elects to provide such clarification; (3) confirm that the previously filed record remains part of Supreme Court No. 133449 and need not be resubmitted; (4) reconsider the Rule 383 and Rule 381 requests to the extent procedurally permissible; (5) clarify from the official record the identity, representative capacity, disputed caption, personal-jurisdiction basis, sanction target, and record basis for the disputed "sovereign citizen" characterization; (6) clarify the assignment and procedural authority for the challenged proceedings concerning the registered foreign judgment, including any proceedings after administrative closure; (7) clarify the relationship between the September 29, 2026 case-specific notice in No. 133449 and the Court's September 29, 2026 public Daily Announcement, including the docket or record on which the disposition of No. 133449 was entered; and (8) grant such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

EXHIBIT EILLINOIS SUPREME COURT*SEPTEMBER 30, 2026 PUBLIC LEAVE TO APPEAL DOCKET

Description of Exhibit. Copy of the Illinois Supreme Court's September 30, 2026 public Leave to Appeal Docket. The published docket identifies the cases disposed of on that docket and, in the numerical sequence surrounding Supreme Court No. 133449, lists No. 133447, followed by No. 133448, and then No. 133450. Supreme Court No. 133449 does not appear in that published sequence.

Purpose. This exhibit is submitted as a public-record chronology relevant to Petitioners' request for clarification concerning the docket or record on which the September 29, 2026 case-specific disposition in Supreme Court No. 133449 was entered.

Record limitation. Petitioners identify the published sequence itself and do not rely upon this exhibit, standing alone, to establish the reason for the absence of No. 133449 from the September 30 public Leave to Appeal Docket.

In the exercise of this Court's supervisory authority, the Appellate Court, First District, is directed to vacate its judgment in Kievlan v. Judges Retirement System of Illinois, case No. 1-25-0150 (03/05/26). The appellate judges assigned to hear matters in this case may make their own determination as to whether to disqualify themselves. If those appellate judges determine not to disqualify themselves, then the court shall reinstate its judgment with the opinion being modified to remove footnote 3 on page 9 of the opinion.
